Asset Limits Policy for Family Selection

New Construction, Home Preservation or Critical Home Repair

Assets Limits Policy

CCHFH selects partner homebuyers that meet specific financial criteria that demonstrate both the household's need and ability to pay. Households are eligible for access ramps if their income is below 60% of the HUD Area Median Income.

CCHFH allows applicable assets to be considered as a reasonable portion of an applicant's household income. An Asset Formula for consideration of those assets allows for a consistent, objective manner so that the CCHFH Family Selection Committee may fairly consider a household's eligibility.

Types of assets included in consideration:

- Bank accounts
- Credit Union accounts
- Money market accounts
- Stocks
- Real estate property
- Personal property (mobile home, boat, etc.)

Types of assets excluded from consideration:

The following types of assets will be excluded from the asset test, unless the applicant is dependent on that income to qualify and such income is used to support the family at the time of application.

- Retirement accounts
- School savings accounts
- Automobile
- Furniture or related personal items

CCHFH and its banking partners reserve the right to assess situations on an individual basis in a manner consistent with this policy and the CCHFH Partner Family Selection Criteria and Process.
